JOURNAL "X RAYS"
Oh! that the Oregonian were as fair as it is fearless.
Albany bottled beer is said to be crowding the Portland product out of the market.
McKinley has done what many a man does when he gets in a tight place—grabbed a Root.
Woodburn and Silverton have a large growing family of JOURNAL readers, daily and weekly.
While other towns are without an adequate water supply, Salem water is cool, pure and plenty.
The Albany Morning paper gets to Salem about 30 hours after it's printed. Pretty swift for Albany.
The administration should do one more wise act of dropping a Jonah overboard—drop General Corbin. The people will get the rest.
It is refreshing to know that the vacancies in the committees to receive the Oregon heroes have been filled by loyal and patriotic people.
My lord Paine was not satisfied to discharge a Democrat who refused to put up for his and Hendricks' campaign fund but he discharged his wife, too.
Aside from a few poems and what Gov. Geer has done, (and he is well paid,) what has the state of Oregon done for the volunteers except sell them uniforms at more than the lawful price?
Salemites are taking swimming baths in the Willamette. An exchange says: There is no excuse for a person's not keeping cool in this valley when told to. Just jump into the Willamette. It is one of the coolest streams in the United States, and a bath in it is as refreshing as a new joke.
Sacramento Bee.—THE SALEM JOURNAL says that the directors of state fair of Oregon should "quit scattering free passes right and left among the salary-drawing officials and political aristocracy." Similar advice would be an excellent prescription for the directors of the state fair of California.
Here's the opinion of one Populist editor of another:
It is estimated that the next census will show a population for the United States of 80,000,000. And that does not include Colorado! Hear, THE CAPITAL JOURNAL—Oregon Independent.
Yes, and they can probably make it and leave Gov-nah Fletcher out, too.—Albany Press.
Speaking of the large increase of Italian immigration under the padrone system, commissioner Mcweeney of New York says:
"We are morally sure that it does. When people come here from Italy supplied with equal amounts of American gold we think there is something more than mere chance in it."
Well don't the American farmer need them? Speckles farms a township of sugar beets and employs several thousand Italian and Jap coolies who live on rice and macaroni. Great is American industry!
If the $30,000 to $50,000 spent by the Paris exposition commission for Oregon would result in bringing colonies of thirty French peasants to Oregon to engage in fruit growing, the people might stand it. But it will not do that. We are too nativistic to employ Frenchmen to tell their people the facts about our prunes. We will spend the money on our American police peasantry who want to attend the exposition as paupers at public expense.

MARION COUNTY MATTERS
Business Being Transacted at the Court House.
PROBATE COURT.
Judge Terrell, handed down his decision in the matter of the claim of Joseph Fishburn amounting to $65.50, against the estate of S. R. Hammer, deceased, which claim was presented to and rejected by John Hughes, the administrator. The court, in deciding the claim, says: "It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the court that the said claim, amounting to $65.50, be allowed and the balance of the claim disallowed, and that each of the parties to this proceeding pay his own costs and disbursements; and it is further ordered that the said sum of $65.50 be paid by the said John Hughes, administrator of the estate of S. R. Hammer, deceased, in the due course of administration out of any moneys that may come into his hands belonging to the said estate."
REAL ESTATE RECORDS.
Jule Amend and wife to E. A. Gleason, 68 1/2 acres in sections 15 and 16, T. 15 N., R. 2 W., $2,500.
J. C. Milton and wife to Albert Harris, 6.21 acres in Marion county, $800.
David S. Pearson and wife to E. J. Pearson the n e 1/4 of the n e 1/4 and the e 1/2 of n w 1/4 of n e 1/4 sec 35, T. 8 S., R. 3 W., $787.50.
Wm. Cooper to David S. Pearson and wife, q c d to the n e 1/4 of the n e 1/4 and e 1/2 of n w 1/4 of n e 1/4 sec 35 and the e 1/2 of w 1/2 of e 1/4 sec 26, T. 8 S., R. 3 W., $1,075.
John McDonald to James Niel, lots 1 and 2 in the A. F. Waller add to Salem, $250.
Hot Steam.
As a new steam thrasher owned by Darby, King and Lewis, of near Waldo Hills, was being driven up State street, and when opposite the Palace meat market, the rubber packing around the hand hole plate blew out and the hot steam rushed out with a roar that was a source of danger to people passing near.
At the time of the accident there was 140 pounds of steam on the fireman promptly raked out the fire, so that in about ten minutes the danger was past.
The New Wing.
The new asylum wing is 42x100 and today the stringers of the first floor were completed. The stonework of the foundation is complete, but no brick are on the ground yet, tho' expected soon. The superstructure will be practically fireproof, wood moldings being confined to basements of about 2 1/2 inches. The plumbing will all be in an annex outside the main structure.
The Dalles Times-Mountaineer: "The popular loan idea in Salem has proved a marked success. The city wanted to float $65,000 of 4 per cent bonds and in less than a week over $135,000 has been offered. The bonds floated with home capitalists will be a big thing for Salem, as all the interest will be kept at home. If all public debts were carried at home the country would be better off."

Mrs. Geo. Mellet, of Portland, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Armstrong, has gone home.
Mrs. B. H. Reasoner, of Dallas, is visiting at the home of Mr. J. P. Johnson on Asylum Avenue, who was stricken with paralysis and who is now slowly recovering from the stroke. Mr. Johnson hopes to be about soon and ultimately entirely recovered.
Geo. Gans, Jr., has gone back to his position on the Warm Springs reservation.
Miss Preston of Portland who has been visiting Miss Pearl Carter left today.
Mrs. Louis Tarpley has gone home after visiting Salem friends.
Joshua H. Gay and wife and Mrs. B. P. Williams are home from Newport. Conductor Dave Houston of the S. P. Co., is laid up with vaccine poison.
